

10 FAMOUS APPRENTICES

DAVID BECKHAM

Former Youth Training Scheme

Becks now has 115 caps for England and is one of the highest earning footballers in the world!

LORD BAMFORD

Former agricultural equipment apprentice

Bamford is now the chairman of JCB – one of the UK's most successful family-owned businesses.

ALEXANDER McQUEEN

Former tailor's apprentice

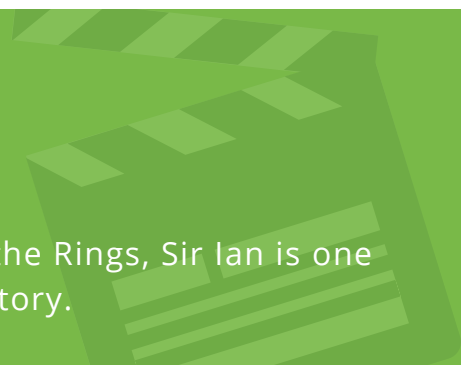

McQueen won British Designer of the Year 4 times in a row, launched his own global fashion house and was awarded a CBE.

SIR IAN McKELLAN

Former acting apprentice

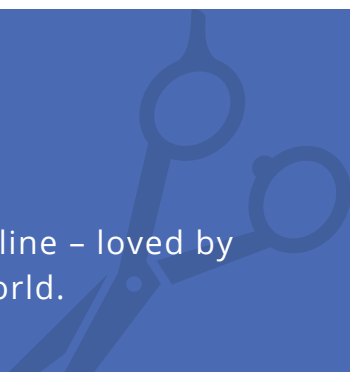

Best known for playing Gandalf in Lord of the Rings, Sir Ian is one of the most celebrated actors in British history.

JOHN FREIDA

Former hairdressing apprentice

Freida founded his own hair salon and product line – loved by blondes, brunettes and red heads across the world.

10 FAMOUS APPRENTICES

JAMIE OLIVER

Former chef apprentice

Jamie is now a household name with restaurants in every town, TV shows on every channel, sauces in every supermarket and cookbooks in every kitchen.

SIR ALEX FERGUSON

Former apprentice toolmaker

After a 26-year reign as Manchester United manager, Ferguson is now considered one of the greatest and most successful football managers of all time.

ELVIS PRESLEY

Former apprentice electrician

The King of Rock and Roll, Elvis Presley is the best-selling solo artist in the history of recorded music.

STELLA McCARTNEY

Former fashion apprentice

Recognised for her elegant tailoring, Stella is an internationally renowned fashion designer, perfumier and animal rights activist.

ROSS BRAWN

Former mechanical engineering apprentice

Ross Brawn is one of the finest technical directors Formula One has ever seen – directing Benetton, Ferrari and Mercedes.

